KING SOUNDS APPEAL FOR PARTY PEACE

VIENNA, June 21.—(U.P.)—Two persons have been killed and forty-eight injured in rioting in Zagreb, Yugoslavia, a telephone message tonight said.

One hundred and eighty arrests have been made.

BELGRADE, June 21.—(U.P.)—King Alexander called all Yugoslavian party leaders into conference today in an effort to bring political peace following the assassination of two Croation peasant leaders in the parliament yesterday by Ponce Ratchich (Co), radical Montenegrin deputy.

Parliament was adjourned sine die and the king made an appeal to the leaders to find a modus vivendi to prevent resignation of the cabinet.

Ratchich's assassination of the Croations, Paul Raditch and Djura Basenick, followed a long filibuster in the parliament, and an exchange of bitter words. The radical drew a revolver and began shooting. Stephen Raditch, brother of Paul, was one of the three others wounded.

Two thousand mourners accompanied the bodies of the dead deputies to the Belgrade station where they were put aboard a train for Zagreb. Important Croation city which gave them strong political support. A great demonstration was held in Zagreb (Co) when news of the assassination reached the city. Shops were closed and houses draped in mourning. Even restaurants closed and tramways ceased operating.

CORDOVA, Alaska, June 21.—(U.P.)—Southern Alaska was rocked by three earthquakes today but no reports of extensive property damage or casualties have been received here.

Numerous avalanches were started by the tremors in the Chugach mountains north of here, and added to the fright of inhabitants of this district because the landslides could be plainly seen from here.

The shocks were within a hundred mile radius of Cordova.

Ships at sea including the H. M. S. Durdan, British light cruiser that was off Prince Williams sound reported the disturbances were noticeable and they were tossed about by the large waves that resulted.

Attorney Is Summoned In Ferry Hoax

Edward Garrett, disbarred Minnesota attorney, has been summoned as a witness in the $50,000 Peralta ferry death hoax.

Garrett, it is alleged by Mrs. Huffman, mother of Isabel Robertson for whose supposed death in the ferry accident she sued the Key Transit company, induced her to launch suit against the company.

Mrs. Huffman, who yesterday confessed she knew Isabel was not on the ferry at the time of its "nose dive," is said to have told investigators that Garrett caused her to sign a contract to pay him one-sixth of the damages received from the company. Then, according to her alleged confession, she called on Attorney Daniel Ryan and filed suit for $50,000. Ryan and his associates also were summoned as witnesses.

Juvenile authorities of Alameda county yesterday took steps toward the control of the minor children of the Huffman family. The children are Gloria, 17; Richard, 15; Elsie, 13.

Mrs. Huffman and her daughter, Isabel Robertson, are occupying separate cells in the Oakland prison, awaiting preliminary examination on June 28. Conviction of the felony charges against the women would result in a fine of $5000 and two years in prison.

S. P. Applies For Permit to Abandon Ferry

Moving a step nearer the consummation of a bridge across Suisun bay, the Southern Pacific company has petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington for permission to abandon its ferry system between Port Costa and Benicia.

Estimated cost of the bridge, which will be completed within three years, is set at $15,000,000.

The same petition also has been presented to the War Department, which must jointly approve the move with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

While some objection is expected from the War Department, officials of the Southern Pacific are optimistic and are going forward with their plans.

On June 27 the company will apply to the city of Martinez for a franchise to erect the southern terminus of the bridge within the Martinez city limits.

The bridge will be six miles long.

SHIPS WILL TRACE ROUTE OF SEAPLANE

KINGS BAY, Spitzbergen, June 21.—(U.P.)—The expedition following discovery of General Umberto Nobile and five men of the crew of the ill-fated dirigible Italia gave place tonight to grave apprehension for the fate of Raold Amundsen, South Pole discoverer, and five men who accompanied him from Tromsø Monday to search for the Italian explorers.

No word had come from Amundsen. Neither had the giant seaplane in which he flew with Major Rene Guilbaud, Lieut. Lieut. Dietrichson, Lieut. De Cuverville, and a radio operator and mechanic, been reported by flyers from Reilef ships or land.

Arctic experts were convinced today that relief would be urgently needed by Amundsen in event he had crashed on the ice or landed in rough seas. They conceded the possibility he had met disaster.

The fact that aviators flying in the vicinity of Nobile's encampment on the crumbling ice had seen no trace of Amundsen's plane caused a belief in some quarters that he had traveled west on a dromed seeking the seven men who were blown away when the Italia crashed on the ice, or had searched for a third party of three which had left Nobile and started walking toward land.

This belief was strengthened by reports published in Oslo that before leaving Amundsen had told friends the other two groups of Italian survivors were in greater need of help than Nobile.

Now that Nobile's rescue is considered certain, efforts were turned toward finding Amundsen. The Norwegian air ministry decided to despatch the government's fishing supervision vessel, the Michael Sars, now at Bear Island, to seek the south pole discoverer. The ship will follow Amundsen's route to the thirteenth degree of eastern longitude and will join the Russian ice breaker Malinin, which will aid in the search.

Amundsen carried a rubber boat capable of holding three or four men. There were six aboard the seaplane.

A Swedish airplane, it is understood, has proceeded to St. Joseph's Yand to search for Amundsen. A report from Copenhagen said a hydroplane, plying on the regular Copenhagen-Oslo service would go to King's Bay Monday to help in the rescue of Nobile and this may be diverted to the search for (Continued on Page 4)

THE BRAND OF DEMAGOGUE

Chairman Clem Shaver perfectly fits the democratic party in the extraordinary wildness of his behavior. His invitation to the small faction of pension socking farmers who failed to impress the republican convention is in line with the policy of the opposition to stir troubles which it knows it will never have the pains of having to settle.

This country is still dissociated from the dole system of placating minorities. And even the hardest hit of the farmers in their thoughtful moments do not wish to start a train of subsidies for industries and businesses which may end anywhere and probably will if pursued.

The gesture of bidding the farmers bring their troubles to Houston is the precise brand of demagogery with which Mr. Shaver's conduct has been marked since he emerged from obscurity to the post of democratic national chairman. Many in his own party, and especially in the south, will have none of him. But for the sake of the few votes which are already clinched against Hoover, he would stultify his party principles and appeal to the basest and most selfish instincts in our political life.

Mayor Walker of New York, returning from a Florida trip, says that he caught a whoopee. We don't know what that is but it sounds like it might be an Al Smith delegate.

Mussolini, no doubt, is quite a fellow, and has a lot of authority, but we know a lot of folks who would rather be assistant doorkeeper at the national conventions.

When a stranger approaches you now with outstretched hand and a friendly twinkle in his eye, you can't tell whether he is an insurance agent or an ambitious candidate.

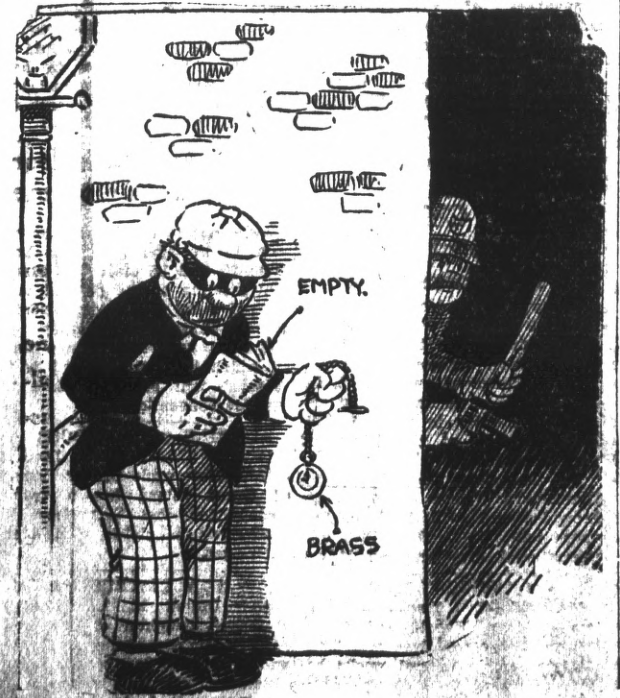

An American mining engineer kidnapped in Mexico by killing his four guards with a bottle. The dispatch does not state whether he gave them a drink or used it as a club.

A scientist says that fifty billion electrons can sit on the point of a pin. But who wants to be an electron, anyhow?

Maybe we are getting cynical, but it occurs to us that we see a lot more bowlegged women than we used to see.

A press dispatch says that high taxes may cause a revolt in Chicago. We suppose this refers to the high tax per quart.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Julie Says—

This little morning frock should be called the "alarm clock." For who no matter how sleepy a head can resist getting up in time to put on this smart morning costume. There are any number of them vying with one another in their attractiveness in all sorts of lovely materials. And among the best are the washable ones, in moire and silk pique, and by the way it was only until recently that this silk pique seemed to be used mainly for babies' gowns. This little morning frock I have sketched is of printed silk pique quite tailored with a plain organdie vest. The skirt is box-pleated on a yoke giving the smart confined hip effect.

Lucien Privet, well-known on the New York stage, has signed a long term contract with Howard Hughes of Cadiz, it was announced here.

BEAUTY

By LAURA LANE

Haven't you sometimes contemplated the tenuous waves on the smug looking women in the advertisements for various shampoo soaps and wonder wistfully how they get that way? They inspired in me just about the same emotions as the tapering white hands of the woman happily scouring the floor with Elixatuck, the new laundry soap.

However, even you and I can bring out the best qualities of our hair and attain at least a possible imitation of the ladies in the advertisements by using the right method of shampoo at correct intervals. Only hair can naturally stand more soap and water than any other part of the body, and it is inclined to be dry and brittle and should receive more frequent washings. Hot water has a particularly bad effect, which is not lessened by the use of hard water soap as this contains too much borax. Just a little borax to soften the water is all that is needed.

Soap water should never be applied to the hair except in liquid form. Otherwise it will adhere to the strands and be difficult to rinse out, leaving the hair sticky and dull. A good shampoo soap can be obtained by simply adding a little soap in hot water. Dry the hair by rubbing with a towel in the sun, if possible. A good idea and rinsing will do much to keep the scalp healthy.

Some hair experts attribute men's tendency to baldness to their habit of washing their hair every time they bathe. It seems logical to suppose that by constantly washing out the natural oils of the hair we deprive it of necessary nourishment.

Vigorous Health

I have a very dry skin, brittle nails, dry scalp and am losing my hair very fast. Does my system lack some mineral and if so what is it? MRS. J.W.

You probably lack some minerals, especially sodium and silicon, but you will never assimilate these properly, even if they are supplied in the diet, until you correct all the habits of living. The usual natural treatment in

I hear that John's wife leaves him almost every week. Well, I guess that's true. You know he married the Van Bibber's cook.

Such a case would be a few days on fresh or dried peaches to reduce toxemia, after which a balanced diet of fruits, vegetables, nuts, whole grain cereals and dairy products is used, giving special attention to raw foods, but avoiding overeating. Due attention is given to general exercise, dry friction baths, cool baths, sun baths if possible and deep breathing of fresh air.

"Sterile mucus" to me means normal mucus, that is, the natural secretion of the mucous membranes. However, your doctor probably refers to mucus in which there are no pathogenic germs. If you will send me your name and address on a stamped envelope I will be glad to tell you a few of the places where you can secure natural methods of treatment.

"East Side, West Side"

"Holmes Herbert, June Collier and George O'Brien in a scene from East Side, West Side, now being screened at the California Theatre"

LARGE MOVIE
SET DEPICTS
N. Y. SECTION

The New York City moved to

Fox Films when Allan Dwan produced the screen version of Felix

Riesenberg's novel, "East Side,

West Side," with George O'Brien,

Virginia Valli and J. Farrell Macdonald in the principal roles. The picture opened a two day showing at the California theatre last night.

Charles Kirk, in charge of construction built a set that took up nearly the entire studio, showing a section of the lower East Side with all its chaotic jumble of brass shops, second hand furniture and clothing stores, with the elevated looming menacingly above them.

The scene is peopled with colorful types recruited from the actual location. Bearded Jews, voluble

Italians, comely girls, and mischievous children make up part of the totting and mulling mass of humanity that forms the background for this portion of Riesen-berg's story.

In the weeks he spent preparing the play the role of John

Brooks alias "Fighting Lipinsky,"

George O'Brien gathered color from the Ghetto. O'Brien is the boy in the story who fought his way to success in New York when the barge on which he spent his childhood was wrecked near the Brooklyn bridge.

Virginia Valli plays Becca Lipvitch, the Ghetto girl who loved him, and J. Farrell Macdonald is Pug Malone, the trainer who sponsored him in his ring career.

Among these are Frank Allsworth,

John Kearney, Dore Davidson and

Sonia Nodasky. The whole production is a finished work of art.

Other film features include,

"Putting the Pants on Phillip" and News.

After five years of married life

a son, then three, became irritated to the father who did not like his mollycoddle ways. His cruelty towards his child became so marked that the First Mate interfered and for his interference was accused of being the child's father, made prisoner and the wife and son set adrift in an open boat in the Pacific. For eighteen years the First Mate held prisoner and beaten daily to confess that the child had been his. On a Pacific Island the boy miraculously saved meets the Captain for the first time. Here also is Goldie Kane, a stranded show girl, who is attracted to the youngster.

During a scuffle in a low dance hall where the girl was engaged,

the Captain recognizes his son from a scar and he has him and the girl shanghaied and brought to the ship. They set sail and the boy is placed in the dungeon with the mate. The crew later mutiny and through the efforts of the girl both men are freed, and the Captain infuriated blows up his ship, just after the boy and girl escape, while he and the mate are lost.

SYNOPSIS

Rose Shannon, one of the dancing girls at Kelly's Ringside

Cafe in the Bowery, has attracted the attention of Chuck White, a wealthy playboy. Later he tries to make passionate love to her. In desperation she seizes a clock and strikes him with it. Chuck drops unconscious. Terrified that she has killed him, Rose hastily packs her things and rushes into the night.

Running through the darkened streets she stumbles suddenly across a satchel marked "Mercer National Bank." On her way to return it she is met by a policeman on the trail of the bandits. At the police station she is accused of complicity.

CHAPTER VI—Continued

Groups of old books with musty bindings, their edges frayed and torn, were piled about carelessly in corners, while behind the conglomerate mass a long tapestry hung, concealing the interior of the store.

Stray beams of light trickled into the shop from the barred door and were quickly lost in the contrasting brightness of electricity that brought out a soft glow of color from the faded Oriental rug on the floor. To the rear of the room was a long, carved teakwood desk, beside which stood a base burner stove. All about the walls hung a collection of prints—Chinese, Japanese, Persian, Indian—interspersed with brilliantly colored wall drapes.

Huge carved chairs reared their high backs against ancient tapestries, figured with unusual designs.

The Professor turned sharply as the door opened, letting in a sudden stream of grayish light along with Lefty. He hurried into the room, a bulging edition of a newspaper in his hands.

"Well, what a fine bunch of saps

you are! I tell you I got cowed by a jame-knocked out coid!"

Chuck rubbed himself away from the Professor, thrusting aside the restraining hand on his shoulder.

He paused; then he frowned.

"What was the matter tonight?

Didn't the deal go through?"

"Sure, they knock off the trick

all right, and then the bulls chase them and they throw it over the roof of the sheds as it will come down right on the street. The dicks have it by this time. We haven't got."

The Professor turned sharply as</

REDUCTION IS EXPECTED IN COUNTY VALUE

Reduced oil storage and lowered prices on petroleum give prospect of a reduction in Contra Costa county's assessed valuation this year, figures being compiled in the office of Assessor George O. Meese for embodiment in assessment rolls, indicated.

The assessment roll is to be submitted to the supervisors for approval on July 2.

When assessment checks were made on March 1 supplies of stored oil were low and this with a considerable lowered petroleum price seems to indicate a reduction of last year's total assessed valuation of $106,731,000. Natural increases in other types of property, it is indicated will not be sufficient to bring the valuation total to last year's level.

Officials lack any definite idea yet of what the tax rate for the coming year will be.

Every official is absorbed in making out a budget to conform to the new state budget law and must have their estimates filed with Auditor A. N. Sullenger by July 10.

The budget requirement, it is said, will double the work of the auditor's office. Consideration is now being given to means of providing additional help in this office.

Girl Aviator Reads During Long Flights

LONDON, June 21.—(U.P.)—Reading a book is one way of passing the time on a long solo airplane flight. When the flyer is a woman passing over dangerous territory, the library is opened only at an altitude considered safe from bullets fired by wandering natives.

Lady Heath hit upon the idea of reading during her lone flight from Cape Town to London, almost 10,000 miles. When she landed in Tunis a bullet hole was found in one wing of her plane. After that she did her reading at a good height.

England's premier aviatrix arrived in Croydon wearing a brown sports suit, fur coat, small black hat and high-heeled shoes. She is considered the best-dressed flyer in Europe. Enroute to Cairo she decided to put on a pair of silk stockings for the official reception awaiting her. "I got the stockings out of my locker and put them on without difficulty," she said.

Lady Heath's plane is an Avro Avian, with a 30 horse-power engine, and similar to the machine in which Bert Hinkler flew to Australia. It is considered likely that her next flight will be over Hinkler's route.

Cripple Plans Long Journey By Wheel Chair

STOCKHOLM, June 21.—(U.P.)—From Stockholm to Monte Carlo in a wheel chair is the arduous undertaking, planned by Franz Witt, a Swedish cripple, who is about to set out on his long journey.

The trip, which will proceed through Sweden, Denmark, Germany, Belgium and France, will land him at his destination some time in October, he expects. Witt will prepare his own food and sleep in a pup tent which is included in the complete camping outfit he will carry with him.

Last year he journeyed from Stockholm to Paris in his wheel chair. He did not actually reach the boulevards of the French capital in his self propelled conveyance, but like Colonel Lindbergh, he arrived at Le Bourget, where his chair broke down.

Vienna Jazz Bands Encourage Bathing

VIENNA, June 21.—(U.P.)—Jazz music promotes bodily cleanliness, especially among women, it has been discovered here.

Before the war the few strands, or river beaches near Vienna were frequented by very small groups, the men outnumbering the women two to one. Today, at ordinary bathing places, there are twice as many women as men. And, where jazz orchestras are part of the establishment, women outnumber the men four to one.

As a result, jazz music will be a feature at every strand this summer.

Statistics Show Majority Of Men Unhappily Wedded

One hundred marriages, placed under the microscope of 400 questions, have shown that 61 out of a total of 100 men in New York city can think of 233 causes of dissatisfaction.

That, in brief, is the result of a survey published in the Woman's Home Companion which is on the news stands today. Among the startling admissions gained from these men, among them business and professional men, one publisher, a poet, an actor, a composer, editors and playwrights, were the following:

"Seven began to be seriously dissatisfied while they were still engaged to their prospective wives."
"Eight said that they had been dissatisfied from the beginning."
"One may was troubled by 12 causes of dissatisfaction."
Here are the statistics, one the kinds of things these men found wrong with their married lives:

Temperamental dissatisfactions	49
Physical dissatisfactions	39
Lack of personal freedom	10
Ill health	10
Jealousy	8
Troubles over children	8

Amundsen. Three other Swedish airplanes at King's bay made arrangements to try to land on the ice and take aboard Noble and his companions.

Some experts believed Amundsen is safe and recall he was lost for three weeks in 1925. Major Umberto Maddalena, who found and dropped provisions to Noble, flew over the castaways' camp at an altitude of fifteen meters and was able to recognize Noble, Radio Operator Blag, Vigliani, and Troffini, who leaped on the ice, apparently to demonstrate they were in good physical condition. One of the men, engineer Cecconi, has a broken thigh.

Maddalena reported the party all wore furs and he saw Noble had a rubber boat which was carried in the Italia's gondola. He saw no trace of the gondola. The crew of the S-55 in which Maddalena flew believed the ice about Noble could be broken with an ice breaker, but there was not sufficient water for a seaplane to land.

Noble now is supplied with smoke bombs and will be able to attract the attention of rescue ships. Major Maddalena reported Noble received all the packages dropped Wednesday by parachute except possibly one, when a parachute failed to open and the package crashed on the ice. These supplies will be sufficient to last Noble until he reaches civilization, it was said.

Preliminary Hearing For Accused Bride Is Set By Court

LOS ANGELES, June 21.—(U.P.)—Preliminary hearing of Mrs. Hazel Glad and her 17-year-old niece, Ethyl Kaser, charged with the murder of the former's husband, John I. Glad, wealthy former Chicago drugist, was set for June 26 by Municipal Judge Parker Wood today.

The women will plead at that time. The arraignment proceedings, other than the reading of the charge, were very brief.

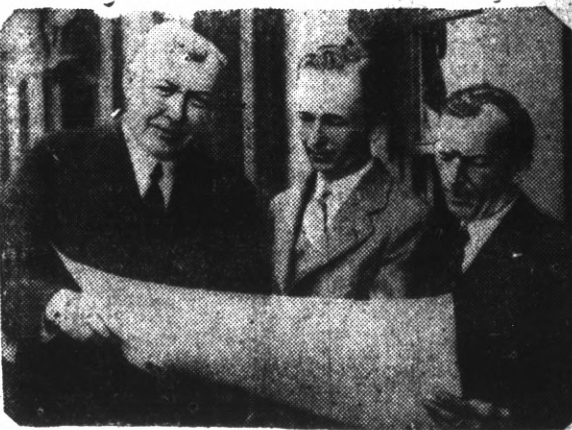

Investigators turned their attention tonight to a mystery car, which Mrs. Glad's maid told them she heard drive up to the rear of the Glad home Monday night ten minutes before the drugist was shot down in the front driveway.

The information was given police today by Mrs. Esther Wilson, wife of the Glad gardener. She said she did not remember hearing the car leave, but attributed this to her excitement after the shot was fired.

Search for the death weapon continued unsuccessful. Police made a thorough hunt of the Glad home and grounds at Van Nuys and admitted they were worried.

While three revolvers were found in the house none of them tallied with the caliber of the death gun, as ascertained by an autopsy. Failure to find the revolver would be a weak link in the evidence against Mrs. Glad police feared.

Luxembourg Has Record Of Labor Law Enactments

GENEVA, June 21.—(U.P.)—Luxembourg, one of the smallest countries in the world lying in the angle between Belgium, France and Germany, holds the world's record for labor legislation.

It is the only country in the world, according to an announcement by the International Labor Bureau, that has ratified all 25 of the international labor conventions that have been launched by the 10 international labor conferences that have been held to date.

The first of these conventions is the famous eight-hour labor convention that was launched by the First International Labor Conference held at Washington in 1919.

Amongst the other 24 and which Luxembourg is the only state to have ratified all are the conventions against unemployment, of women before and after childbirth, against the employment of women and children in night work; fixing the minimum age limit for children in industrial, maritime and agricultural work; establishing the right of agricultural workers to form unions; equality of treatment of foreign and national workmen in the matter of recompense for accidents and a dozen others.

U. S. Charged With Causing Polo Dangers

LONDON, June 21.—(U.P.)—The United States Polo association, by its strict measures and appointment of a permanent official umpire, has made the game faster, less dangerous, and more skillful. This was the declaration made by the Hurlingham Club Polo committee, the governing body of polo in Britain, at its meeting for the discussion on umpiring.

Lord Cowdray, chairman of the committee, declared that prominent British exponents of the game had learned much from their experiences in America during the last international tournaments. He said that from the spectators' point of view there was a marked difference in the umpiring at these matches and the umpiring generally practiced in this country. "In the first chucker of the match was blowing more freely," he said, "but for the rest of the game umpires appeared almost unnecessary. The second match in the United States was the best game I have ever seen."

Colonel H. A. Tomkinson, a familiar figure on the umpire's pony, who also attended the international matches, declared that in the United States umpires are strict and the game very fair.

He pointed out that in the United States the player who made his opponent in possession pull out or put him off his stroke by coming in at a dangerous angle, even though the offender did not actually cross his man, was penalized by a "foul by intimidation."

HOUSTON SET FOR OPENING OF CONCLAVE

HOUSTON, Tex., June 21.—(U.P.)—This pleasant metropolis of the Southwest is already thrilling to the excitement of a great national political gathering, as the week of the quadrennial convention of the national Democracy opens, and the advance guard begins to come in.

Characteristically, Houston has provided the convention with a hall containing the largest single floor space in the world, which will seat approximately 15,000 persons. This is officially called the coliseum and, popularly, "the house that Jesse Jones built; from the fact that it has gone up in the few months since Jesse H. Jones, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, captured the convention for Houston."

The Coliseum was designed by Charles Frankheim, New York architect. Over the main entrance of the building is a great eagle, wings a-spread. The doors are bordered with stars, the symbol of Texas.

Stringing miles of wires for telephone and telegraph use in connection with transmitting news of the great political moment scheduled to pass in this hall, was one of the major tasks of the builders.

The Western and Postal telegraph companies are installing modern transmission devices at a cost of hundreds of thousands of dollars. The combined volume of material these companies will be prepared to handle will reach almost 80,000 words an hour.

Radio broadcasting through a national hookup, also is being arranged to carry word of the convention to every cross-roads and metropolis of the nation.

Private wires will go to the headquarters of candidates at hotels here, or as in the case of those staying away, at their homes or offices.

Visitors who cannot wedge themselves into the crowded hall will find a place in a giant "hospitality house" near the convention building. This over-flow hall covers a block itself and will be made as convenient as possible for the visitors.

A network of loud speakers in this extra building will enable the occupants to hear every word of the progress in the coliseum.

The smooth top on the new Gas Range keeps cooking utensils clean

When you are in your kitchen you put on an apron, even if your kitchen is spotlessly clean.

Gas is a clean fuel. However, a smooth top is built into the new Gas Range to give you added cleanliness.

The smooth top protects the gas burners from food that would otherwise boil over onto the burners. For clean burners mean clean heat. The smooth top distributes heat evenly and one burner keeps several vessels boiling. It sends products of combustion up the flue.

YALE, HARVARD ROWING CREWS TANGLE TODAY

By FRANK GETTY
United Press Sports Editor

Harvard and Yale rivals on the water since 1852, will row their four miles on the Thames river at New London from Bartlett's Cove to the railroad bridge today in the sixty-first renewal of one of the oldest of sporting events in this country.

The Crimson won last year and with one of the heaviest crews that ever rowed on the Thames, Harvard is favored to win again this year. The Harvard crew averages 184 pounds and outweighs the Yale crew almost eight pounds to one.

There is power in that Crimson crew which may conquer Yale and carry on to win the Olympic trials at Philadelphia July 5, 6, and 7.

Ed Brown, finished his second year at the helm of the Harvard crew, has developed one of the smoothest rowing combinations seen in the East in years. Captain Jack Watts is the best pace setter Harvard has had since the war.

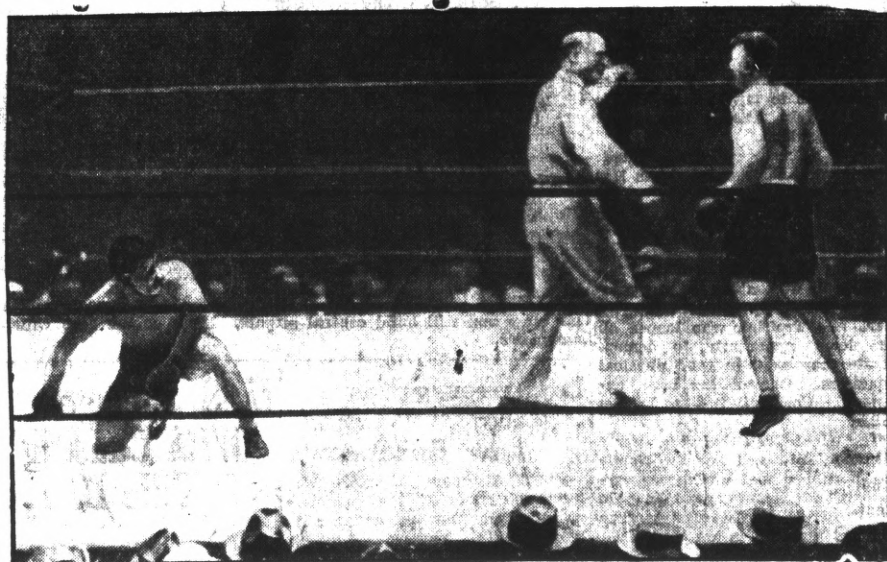

Few Yale Veterans
Yale certainly has a chance to win but close followers of the two crews in training at Gales Ferry and Red Top during the last two weeks, do not anticipate a Blue victory. Aside from Captain Stew, are the coxswain, there is only one veteran in the Yale shell and only one man from last year's junior varsity.

In spite of the difficulties which he has faced, Ed Leader has rounded out a dangerous crew. He has built up the present varsity from unheralded material and may put a crew on the Thames today with seven out of eight men in it who never before have rowed against a Harvard varsity.

Just as it happened a year ago, today's race may be won and lost in the first mile. Harvard last year got out to a good lead in the first mile, and Captain Watts undoubtedly will try to do the same thing today.

If Yale can get out in front early, it may give the young Ellis

When Lomski Fouled Own Chances

LOMSKI, DUBBED THE ABERDEEN ASSASSIN, acted as executioner to his own high hopes when, lured by blows to the head, unleashed in a frenzied attack by Latzo, he unintentionally lifted a right hook from the mat which caught Peter in the groin and was disqualified in the sixth round of one of the most uproarious quarrels witnessed in New York. Our picture shows Lou Magnolia, the referee, ordering Leo Lomski to his corner after being disqualified for hitting low. Latzo is seen sinking to his knees after the blow had landed. Up to the moment the fight had been one of the best seen for some time.

The necessary confidence to out-row a bigger, stronger and more experienced Harvard crew.

No Yale-Harvard boat race of recent years promises as much as today's duel. Harvard is picked to win, but the young Yale crew is formidable and is in a position to upset advance calculations.

Luxuries Banned
Not the least interesting thing in connection with a Harvard-Yale boat race. Every oarsman must completely isolate himself from outside life. They are available to their families and friends only by mail and short visits.

Members of the Harvard crew were instructed by Coach Brown to have their hair cut before they came to Red Top as they would not be near a barber shop until after the race.

There are almost no luxuries available at either camp while all athletes must devote themselves assiduously to the business of rowing for a period of from two to three weeks. No football team ever trained harder for any game than the Yale or Harvard crews train for the annual boat race which is perhaps the greatest exhibition of courage and coordination in sport.

Aged Indian Takes Second In Marathon

GRANTS PASS, Ore., June 21—(U.P.)—Near exhaustion, but still courageous, Melika, 62 year old Zuni Indian, stumbled across the finish line of the 42 mile Redwood Empire Indian marathon here tonight to capture second place.

"Flying Cloud," young Karook, took first place when he finished at 10:22 a. m. today, 26 hours ahead of the record time set by "Mad Bull" another Karook, last year. Melika by finishing at 6:58 p. m. also shattered the time of "Mad Bull."

The Zuni collapsed ten miles south of the city and only a strong will made it possible for him to retain second position until the finish.

When Melika arrived, "Chief Ukiah" was still 23 miles south of here, while Dan Comahungnoma, and "Red Robin" were having a close battle 10 miles behind Chief Ukiah.

With their new theatre contract in pocket, Estelle Taylor, the film player and her noted husband, Jack Dempsey, have returned from the east to remain here until midsummer.

Miss Taylor may play in a few pictures while waiting for the opening of the one year stage agreement with David Balasco.

MCLARNIN IS WINNER OVER PHIL MCGRAW

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, June 21—(U.P.)—Jimmy McLarnin, the baby-faced, blue-eyed Irish lad from Vancouver, B. C., pounded his way back toward the heights of the lightweight division when he knocked out Phil McGraw, Detroit Creek, in 2 minutes and 45 seconds of the first round fight here tonight.

Unleashing a savage attack that sent McGraw sprawling to the canvas four times in the first round, McLarnin knocked out McGraw for the first time in the rugged Detroit fighter's career.

Reeling and rocking, McGraw was a pitiful sight when Referee Jack Dorman stepped between the fighters and led McGraw, glass-eyed and without his senses, to his corner, to have him from further punishment.

SANNIES WIN BY FORFEITURE OF DOUGALLS

The Dougalls again failed to show up for their game in First street park last night and therefore forfeited to the Sannies. When a league-leading team fails to show up two times consecutively and shows that it has no interest, it deserves to lose the pennant and whatever support the fans ever gave it. The Dougalls were going fine. They had a one game lead on first place and then flopped into third place in two jumps by forfeitures.

The game last night between a scrub team of Dougalls that won from the Sannies was a fun fest, like one of these after-piece acts in vaudeville where all hands join in for a rollicking good time of boozing.

Fickes and Pinto both did some good pitching for their respective teams both getting seven strikeouts. The Sannies got only four hits from Pinto and the Dougalls got three from Fickes.

A wild clamor from the press box demanded Phil Jones do his stuff on the mound. So Phil entered in the sixth and the fun began.

When Phil tosses the first ball, all the outfielders moved back as far as they could. Biggs even climbed the right-field wall. It was all in fun, but it turned out to be the right dope because Gray stepped up to the plate and knocked a home-run over the rear fence, the only heavy hit of the game. That tied the score which up to this time stood three to two in favor of the Sannies. Two more hits in the seventh which turned into two more runs and the scrubs had the game.

In the last inning, Greathouse caught heavy pellets. Biggs turned umpire and burliesque Spike Elder. Then Greathouse and Barbieri both twirled and fooled the batters. There would have been more runs, but Biggs and Barbieri held the runners on third base, refusing to let them score.

Four Athletes Forsake Ranks Of Amateurs

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 21 (U.P.)—Four men, who during the last four years have written their names boldly in the collegiate history of Pennsylvania have forsaken the ranks of the amateur athletes for the professional side of sport.

Three of these men are stars whose names have been on the lips of undergraduates of the East for several years, for they were stars on the powerful football, baseball and track teams produced at Penn State.

Heading the trio of State stars to desert the amateur ranks after graduation this June was J. Reepke, captain of Penn State's football team last year and star pitcher for the Nittany Lions on the baseball diamond.

Reepke, his college career ended, has turned to professional baseball. He joined the Scranton Miners of the New York Pennsylvania League as a pitcher. It is in this league that another Penn State star of other years, Glenn Killinger, is a manager. Killinger leads the Harrisburg Senators.

Al Lesko, another Penn State backfield star, and catcher for the Nittany Lions, will join the New York Yankees.

And last but not least of the trio of Nittany stars to turn professional is Cy Lungren, nine letter waving, hurrahing mass of Musco Lungren was a backfield star for Hugo Bezdek. He joins the Souderton club of the Mohawk League.

The fourth Pennsylvania collegian to turn professional is Nick Borelli, said to be the greatest athlete that ever played at Wuh lenberg College. Borelli will join the Philadelphia Athletics.

—RAGS WANTED—RECORD-HERALD

TALKING TO a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said:

One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there is no harm in taking a purgative, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nature should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping.

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling. Nujol is so gentle and harmless. It works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

WRECKING OF RODED BRIDGE IS UNDERWAY

Wrecking of the Shortway trestle near Hodes, built before the war at a cost of $90,000, is an approach to the old slip of the Vallejo Ferry company, was started yesterday. George J. Calder, vice president and manager of the American Toll Bridge company, owner of the property, announced.

The trestle has been maintained for a year as an alternate traffic route in the event that the Hanna Hill slide, near the approach to the Carquinez Strait bridge, should block travel to the span.

"Hanna Hill slide has been 'licked,' Calder said, 'and it is entirely safe now to remove the trestle.'"

The slide, for years a menace to bay shore traffic, was cut down by the State Highway Commission, when the approach to the Carquinez bridge was built. Southern Pacific company also aided in its elimination, being forced to put away a large section of the trestle to prevent blocking of its tracks. By concreting the entire surface of the hill the highway commission has apparently eliminated the slide menace entirely.

Peace Disturber Draws $20 Fine

Yesterday in Police Judge O'Neil's court, W. J. Pollard was fined $20 and given a suspended sentence of 60 days on a charge of disturbing the peace.

The complaint was made by Jay Brubaker of 137 Fifteenth street. Brubaker told the court that after he and some friends had put the auto in the garage and were about to enter his home, they noticed a man peeping in the window. They chased him, and finally captured the fellow.

Lions Trounce Juniors To Win League Honors

The El Cerrito Lions, managed by Ray Schrader, won the championship of the Junior Baseball League yesterday afternoon by defeating the Richmond Juniors by a score of 16 to 2. Batteries for the Lions were Taylor and San Miguel, and for the Richmond Juniors, Barducci and Glass.

As a result of winning the local championship, the El Cerrito Lions will now meet the champions of the up-country league teams. The winners of the county will play for the championship of the Eastbay.

The league has been successful in Richmond through the efforts of the Richmond post of the American Legion and the citizenship committee which assisted them in managing the teams and the league.

Four Chinese Die On Arizona Gallows Today

PHOENIX, Ariz., June 21—(U.P.)—Four of the five Chinese, convicted for murder of Tom King, Tong war victim, must die on the gallows at dawn tomorrow, the state board of pardons and paroles decided late today.

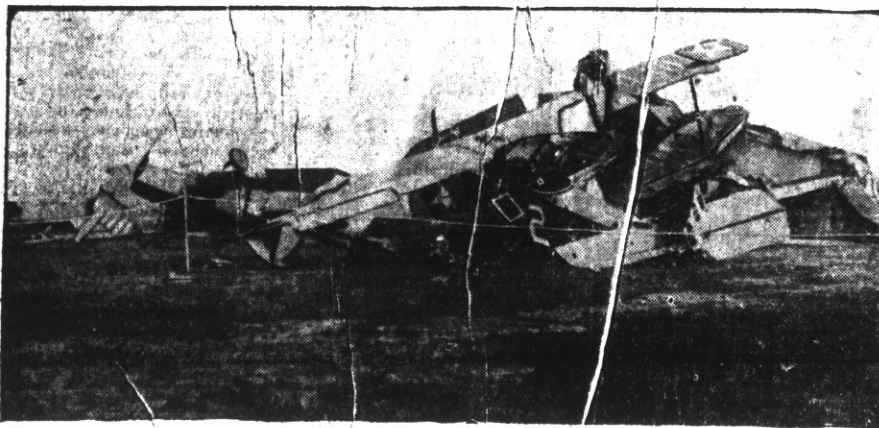

The board refused to act on the application of attorneys for the men for commutation of the sentences of Shew Chin, Jew Har, B. W. L. Sam, and Gee King Long, but recommended life imprisonment for Wong Long, the youngest of the quintet.

In sparing Long from the noose, the board found that he was only 17 years and five months old at the time of the murder.

dent of the Berkeley exchange. They cited the need of organizing an Eastbay exchange because of the common and closely related problems facing all communities of this district. Pedgrift urged the organization to take an active interest in community development and to keep out of politics.

Other speakers, who cited the prosperity for this county and the rapid strides already made, were E. B. Bull, R. T. Osborn and Senator W. Sharkey. P. Sanford pointed out the progress made during the seven years the local organization has existed.

Archie Winchcole was in charge of the entertainment, which consisted of Dennis Shaw's orchestra; Vincent and Norton, "Happy Chappies" of radio; Hines and Leonard in harmony songs, one of their first appearances here after a New York engagement; L. M. Bish in songs and negro dialogues. Through the courtesy of Ervin H. Clausen, manager of the San Francisco district for the John-Manville company, motion pictures were shown depicting the mining and manufacture of asbestos. C. R. Faurot, for 10 years operator at the California theater, handled the machine.

During the meeting a wire was received from T. M. Carlson, at Santa Rosa, stating a court trial made it impossible for him to be in attendance.

A novelty during the dinner was dishes of ice cream fashioned into miniature houses.

SMITH FORCES PREPARE FOR BITTER FIGHT

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER

United Press Staff Correspondent
HOUSTON, Texas, June 21—(U.P.)—Anti-Smith forces are making their final effort to build up a battalion of death to hold more than one third of the Democratic convention delegates resolutely against the governor of New York. They were encouraged by the confusion arising among Smith's friends over the statement issued by Norman E. Mack, New York national committee chairman, emphatically stating that Governor Smith favors permitting each state to fix its own alcoholic content on beverages.

Mack and George R. Van Namee, Governor Smith's campaign manager, both denied this statement was authorized by the candidate but the extreme anti-Smith dries seized upon it gleefully as a weapon unexpectedly placed in their hands.

The women dries, taking the initiative in the fight against Smith at the moment, are planning a series of local mass meetings over the week-end which they hope will impress arriving convention delegates sufficiently to develop resistance enough to throw the halting into a deadlock.

New Razor Blade Sensation

Marvelous Engineering Achievement by World-Famous Manufacturer
Wins Popular Favor

Now the fellows with tough beards and tender skins have no excuses for imperfect shaves. No complaints about old-fashioned razor blades that pull and scrape.

The Valet AutoStop Razor—with the new "VALET" blade—is a shaving wonder. The AutoStop Safety Razor Co., which developed it, have had all the practical experiences that make up a quarter century's devotion to shaving problems.

Introduced to the public a short time ago, this new "VALET" blade has received wide acclaim—and dealers everywhere report unusual sales. The name VALET cut through the blade identifies this shaving marvel. Now you can do your shaving "trick" in less than 2 minutes. The first shave—and many shaves after, with the same blade—brings home to you quite forcefully the fact that shaving can be a pleasure instead of a habit.

Not just a habit—but a pleasure

Try the Valet AutoStop Razor—with the new "Valet" blade. The first, second—even the tenth or fifteenth shave with the same blade, convinces you beyond doubt that before your shaving was only an uncomfortable habit—now it's a pleasure.

Accept No Substitute!
